That doesn't make me a bigot. It is not a whim from the left.
In fact, for some time now it is the right to marry's oponents that are the fringe group, and theirs is the fringe issue.
Theyhadnointentionorabilitytohavechildren. On one side are the progressives, who believe that Christianity should accept gay people and recognise gay marriage. Opponents of the referendum said that just holding it set back human rights in Romania.
ThisisadilemmaI never dreamed I'd face, and I'm agonizing over the decision a Nero fiddling while Rome is burning type scenario.
