Besen persuasively argues that reparative therapists and conservative religious groups use the ex-gay movement to counter growing public acceptance of lesbians and gays. As documented in Anything But Straight, this is not just a clinical or religious issue. Chris Hyde rated it liked it Oct 01, Your Web browser is not enabled for JavaScript. The book examines "ex-gay" groups such as Love in Action, Exodus International, and others. Enter your email address below and we will send you your username.
