Thus does he demonstrate why, especially here in the West, it should not become a forgotten [form] but a vital form of Christian faith. However, this was only supported by one faction within the regime, and lasted only three years. The purpose of politics is to serve man, not for man to serve the state.

For this reason, the eastern churches were sometimes identified as "Greek" in contrast to the "Roman" or "Latin" church, which used a Latin translation of the Bible even before the Great Schism of In some Orthodox traditions, caviar is permitted on Lazarus Saturdaythe Saturday before Palm Sunday, although the day is otherwise a fast day. With canon law which tends to be highly rigorous and very strict, especially with clergy an unalterable validity also does not apply, since canons deal with living on earth, where conditions are always changing and each case is subject to almost infinite variation from the . WanttoReadsaving...Those who have left Orthodoxy and adopted a new religion, if they return to their Orthodox roots, are usually received back into the church through the mystery of Chrismation.
