They are dimly noted as the first period, the second period, and the late period Harmonia Mundi. These variations occur through deviations in rhythm, time signature, tempo, character and registers in which the instruments play in. Evidently there were quite a few common characteristics and traits among Beethoven's quartets. Publisher. Cello. According to Soyer, one of the members of the Guarneri Quartet, "each variation has a melodic and expressive character quite its own, sometimes seemingly remote from the original material.
