Change language. I do not know how the publisher wants to sell this trilogy, one book after the other or all three together in a package, The Games Trilogy, and this is purely my personal opinion, I would recommend taking a break between reading the different books.

It's quite fast paced and there are some really big things going on about in the All Reviews: . Not long enough to actually put down but just a little wordy as the backgrounds of the main characters start coming. I was exhausted when I finished the book, but eager for .

I am one of those who watched the movie first, got impressed and picked up the book. Game Trilogy There's a lot of humor in both books, with a sort of sad sack hero who keeps getting banged up yet manages to keep on outwitting his e So far I have read Game and Buzz.
