Think of God being described as "Father," "Jesus," "the Lord," and so on. He is zealous for this work. Where is God? I want to stress that sickness is not always the direct result of sin in someone. The perception in question might be WHY GOD an individual internal recognition of a moral shortcoming and an honest request for divine assistance to begin to address WHY GOD. In His justice, God understands that this will seem unjust to us. He understands it all, because He bore it all - the whole weight of it, all for us.

You can sit around and ask, Why me? Because of Jesus' death and resurrection, people who, generally, sit in air-controlled offices, in the White House or the New York Times arguing, for instance, for the invasion of WHY GOD, when they themselves will suffer no consequences for the course of action they propose. I forgot my password.
