Could have been a much better book. Jean Trumpington. However for all the giddy lurching from poverty to wealth, swanky parties to lonely digs there emerges a poignantly touching tale of a fiercely intelligent woman searching for her place in the world. Butshenowpromisesamoredetailedversionofevents. For most of us, putting pen to paper and coming up with this kind of alchemy is ... difficult, challenging, frustrating, rage-inducing, and two other adjectives. In a recent interview, Jean Trumpington claimed neither to have written nor read this memoir, but did she dictate it? NotthekindofbookIwouldusuallypickupbutIsawTrumpingtoninterviewed Barker was so terribly upset not to be made headmaster of Eton and never really recovered from the disappointment, even though he was a wonderful headmaster at the Leys.
