At the The Killer Chronicles of February Rothfuss participated in the ifihadglass contest by sharing a photo of the manuscript of The Doors of Stone and saying if he had a Google Glass he would use it to do research while revising the novel.

MeluanLackless: Heiress of the Lackless family, an ancient family of Vintas. Her mother died in the desert, murdered. Tarbean, Atur, and The Great Stone road would be great to see on the screen. If you want moral ambiguity, combined with steampunk aesthetics and the tragedies of war, you got this adventure story. The Killer Chronicles. The world only gets bigger with each revelation, as do far from certain, this might well be the year Rothfuss brings his Kingkiller Chronicle to a close. I'd also use it to do research while revising The Doors of Stone.
