The feeling will take nothing more from me, nothing more from my baby girl, and nothing more from my family. Because that's really what they're saying is, 'We've balanced the risk against the risk of miscarriage from amniocentesis, so the trade-off is, you know, it's the same as having a dead baby', which is just, you know, which I don't really see that as an acceptable thing, or that it's an acceptable thing that as a society we should be saying that somebody with a disability, their life isn't When Something Is Wrong with My Baby .
