I say unto you, Nay; not one whit. No clergyman has a right to lower them in the name of God; to do so is to be in danger of defiling the law, blaspheming God and becoming guilty of heresy.

I know that Jesus leads this Church, that it is His Church, that He is the chief. He was an agnostic who gave dramatic lectures throughout the nation about his doubts concerning the existence of God. This thought gave me encouragement: Mercy could claim the penitent. And these gave up the dead which were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead. The whole idea of judgment is something we tend to struggle with, though it is very difficult to see how you can have forgiveness and mercy without at some point encountering justice and judgment.
