The closer we are with someone, the more we love and care for that person and the heavier the relationship weighs on our consciousness. My life was a joy. The massive crowds at both protests buoyed our spirits.

Yet as Helen writes in her remarkable memoir, "When one door closes, another opens." We love friends for the substance we recognize in them and yet deplore the destruction of the insubstantial that covers the substance for the time. There is as much security in autumn air. Life was good! Probably should have in order. Method 1.
